By treatment we mean surgical or medical intervention including drugs (both organic and synthetic) prescribed by a medical practitioner/specialist, that are needed to diagnose, relieve or cure a disease, illness or injury. A specialist is any doctor, including psychiatrist who is not your usual practitioner.

Declaring illnesses

If you have answered yes to either of the questions above, you will be offered Moratorium Underwriting terms as set out below:

Moratorium Underwriting

Any medical condition or specified related condition for which you have received medical treatment, had signs or symptoms (whether investigated or not) or sought advice in the 5 years prior to your date of entry (pre-existing medical condition) will be excluded. However, after a continuous period of 2 years as an insured person, all pre-existing conditions will become eligible for benefit provided you have not:

- a. consulted a medical practitioner or specialist for medical treatment or advice; or
- b. suffered signs or symptoms; or
- c. taken medication (including drugs, medicines, special diets or injections) for that condition for a continuous period of two years after the date of entry.

If your pre-existing condition is one of those shown below, we will also exclude treatment for the specified related conditions shown:

If you have the following pre-existing condition:	We will not pay for treatment of the following specified related conditions:

3 General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

This is only a summary of ALC's privacy policy and your rights under GDPR. For a complete explanation of how we gather and use your personal information and your corresponding rights, please review our complete Privacy Policy, which is available at <https://www.alchealth.com/privacy.htm>

ALC collects many kinds of information in order to operate effectively and provide you the best products, services and experiences we can. Regardless of the source, we believe it is important to treat that information with care and to help you maintain your privacy.

When you provide data processing consent, we will process your personal information in order to provide the services you have purchased, including to administer claims, and to receive member communications, in accordance with our Privacy Policy. If you provide marketing consent, we will send you relevant information and future marketing materials regarding products or services in which you may have interest, and for all other purposes set forth in our Privacy Policy. You may withdraw your consent at any time.

By providing marketing consent, we may gather information about you from third parties to help us identify insurance products and services in which you may have interest, and share information with third parties, such as web analytics tools, in order to send you relevant information and future marketing materials, and for all other purposes set forth in our Privacy Policy. You may withdraw your consent at any time.

We may share your information with third parties who provide services on our behalf to help with our business activities. These companies are authorized to use your personal information only as necessary to provide these services to us. When we share information with these other companies to provide services for us, they are not allowed to use it for any other purpose and must keep it confidential. These services may include:

- Adjudicating and managing the claims process
- Payment processing to healthcare providers
- Providing customer service

In certain situations, ALC may be required to disclose personal data in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements.

4 Fair Processing Notice

This Privacy Notice describes how XL Insurance Company SE (for the purpose of this notice "we", "us" or the "Insurer") collect and use the personal information of insureds, claimants and other parties (for the purpose of this notice "you") when we are providing our insurance and reinsurance services.

The information provided to the Insurer, together with medical and any other information obtained from you or from other parties about you in connection with this policy, will be used by the Insurer for the purposes of determining your application, the operation of insurance (which includes the process of underwriting, administration, claims management, analytics relevant to insurance, rehabilitation and customer concerns handling) and fraud prevention and detection. We may be required by law to collect certain personal information about you, or as a consequence of any contractual relationship we have with you. Failure to provide this information may prevent or delay the fulfilment of these obligations.

Information will be shared by the Insurer for these purposes with group companies and third party insurers, reinsurers, insurance intermediaries and service providers. Such parties may become data controllers in respect of your personal information. Because we operate as part of a global business, we may transfer your personal information outside the European Economic Area for these purposes.

You have certain rights regarding your personal information, subject to local law. These include the rights to request access, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection and receipt of your personal information in a usable electronic format and to transmit it to a third party (right to portability).

If you have questions or concerns regarding the way in which your personal information has been used, please contact: legalcompliance@axaxl.com

We are committed to working with you to obtain a fair resolution of any complaint or concern about privacy. If, however, you believe that we have not been able to assist with your complaint or concern, you have the right to make a complaint to the UK Information Commissioner's Office.

For more information about how we process your personal information, please see our full privacy notice at: <http://axaxl.com/privacy-and-cookies>
